

Please ensure you arrive at the correct location for fit testing. There are two primary locations on the main Duke campus:

- 1) Occupational & Environmental Safety Office (OESO) at 501 Douglas St., and
- 2) Employee Occupational Health and Wellness (EOHW) in Duke South Clinic, in the sub-basement of the Orange Zone (Room 00350).

Only Duke employees who are required to wear a tight-fitting respirator for their job are required to have a fit test.

These fit test sessions are offered to Duke employees only. This does not include contract employees or students.
